PREFATORY NOTE.

The University of Madras was founded under the Act of Incorporation XXVII of 1857. This Act was in operation until 1904 when as a result of the Commission appointed by the Government of India in 1902 to examine the working of the Universities under that system, the Indian University Act VIII of 1904 was passed with the intention of reorganising the Universities in India and of enlarging their functions in the matters of University Teaching and of supervision over affiliated colleges. This Act again has been superseded by the Madras University Act No. VII of 1923 which was passed by the Legislative Council of Madras early in 1923, and came into force on the 1st May 1923. This new Act was passed so as to reorganise the University with a view to establishing a teaching and residential University at Madras while enabling the University to continue to exercise due control over the quality of the teaching given by colleges which are to constitute the University or are affiliated to it. The Chancellor, the Pro-Chancellor, the Vice-Chancellor, the Senate, the Syndicate, the Academic Council and the Council of Affiliated Colleges constitute the body corporate of the University. The Governor-General is the Visitor of the University; the Governor of Madras is the Chancellor; the Minister of Education is the Pro-Chancellor; the Vice-Chancellor is a whole-time officer, to whom a salary may be paid, who holds office ordinarily for three years, and is appointed by the Chancellor from among five* persons recommended by the Senate. The Authorities of the University under this Act were (1) the Senate, (2) the Syndicate, (3) the Academic Council, (4) the Faculties, (5) the Boards of Studies, (6) the Council of Affiliated Colleges and (7) such other Authorities as may be declared by the Statutes to be Authorities of the University.

*Three as amended by the Madras University (Amendment) Act of 1929.

But from a practical point of view, the Act of 1923 did not result in the rapid development of University activities or in the effective furtherance of schemes which were already under consideration. In order to remove certain ambiguities and duplication of powers vested in the various authorities under the Act of 1923, the University of Madras Amendment Act of 1929 was passed and came into force on the 29th October, 1929. Under the Amending Act, the Council of Affiliated Colleges has been abolished. The Madras University Amendment Act No. XII attempts to remedy the defects of the 1923 Act and it is hoped that it will enable the University to develop more rapidly and successfully along the lines indicated in the preamble to the Act of 1923.

The Act was further amended in April 1937 by the Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937.
